

Day 1:

Funding opportunities

- 8:45-9:15 Registration and coffee
- 9:15-9:30 Welcome and intro – by Anna
- 9:30-10:00 “My grant experience” – by Mathew Domeier
Motivational talk from a young researcher on taking the opportunity to apply, having support and help, the application process itself and the award.
- 10:00-10:45 Funding opportunities – by Per Magnus Kommandantvold and Christin Krokene
Information on what exists, deadlines, application processes and so on. Should mention Young researcher grants from NFR, Marie Curie, ERC, UTFORSK, Vista ...
- 10:45-11:00 Break
- 11:00-12:00 Funding opportunities continues
- 12:00-13:00 Lunch

Mobility and building your academic CV

- 13:00-14:00 The importance of mobility and independence in an academic career – by Melissah Rowe
Giving reason to why it is important to consider to go abroad and how taking the time can be beneficial. Includes information regarding building up international networks as an alternative to longer stays outside Norway.
- 14:00-14:45 “My Marie Curie experience” – by Sundry Maurice
Young researcher who has received a Marie Curie grant.
- 14:45-15:00 Break
- 15:00-16:00 Building your academic CV and how to highlight independence and mobility – by Hugo de Boer

Day 2:

Proposal-writing

- 9:00-10:00 Proposal writing from start to finish – by Delphine Nicolas
- 10:00-10:45 How to communicate the importance of your work – by Delphine Nicolas
- 10:45-11:00 Break
- 11:00-12:00 Targeted writing - Who exactly is your audience and how to write for them? – by Delphine Nicolas
- 12:00-13:00 Lunch

Technical proposal-writing advice

- 13:00-14:00 Information visualisation - using the right figures to communicate your message - by Tom Gabriel Johansen
- 14:00-14:45 How to make a budget for your grant proposal? – by Kari Beate Rygg
- 14:45-15:00 Break
- 15:00-16:00 How reviewers read grants – tips and tricks from a reviewer on what matters the most – by Nils Christian Stenseth